

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY ANNOUNCEMENT

Director of Fair Housing Enforcement

South Suburban Housing Center (SSHC) has an immediate opening for a full-time civil rights attorney to serve as the Director of Fair Housing Enforcement.

About Us

SSHC is the regional fair housing enforcement and HUD-approved housing counseling agency primarily serving the south metropolitan Chicago area. Our mission is to monitor and address discriminatory practices in the housing markets and to provide housing counseling, education, and expanded options to residents that foster stable, inclusive, racially and economically diverse communities.

Position Summary

The Director of Fair Housing Enforcement (Director) will report to the Executive Director and will be responsible for supervising enforcement team staff, managing and investigating housing discrimination complaints, providing direction and oversight for the testing program, and implementing strategies for conducting outreach and education. The Director will also provide legal advice and limited representation of SSHC clients in formal actions, as well as providing legal support for SSHC's general counsel on litigation.

The Director will play a key role in creating strategies for the Enforcement program, developing staff, and planning for its growth and sustenance.

Primary Responsibilities

- Developing and implementing systemic investigation strategies with SSHC enforcement program staff involving complex discrimination issues by large housing providers, mortgage lenders, appraisers, homeowner's insurance providers, and local government activities
- Providing supervision and assistance to the Systemic Investigations Coordinator, Fair Housing Test Coordinator, and Intake Specialist on all phases of complaint intake and investigation program and fair housing educational activities
- Advocating for, mediating resolutions, and in some cases representing SSHC clients victimized by discriminatory housing and mortgage lending practices
- Analyzing the results of fair housing tests and other investigations to determine whether further monitoring is warranted or if evidence of a fair housing or consumer fraud violation exists
- Providing fair housing/lending legal advice to SSHC housing counseling staff who assist clients with pre-purchase, mortgage delinquency, and foreclosure issues
- Filing and assisting with legal actions alleging fair housing act and consumer fraud violations of distressed protected group mortgagors
- Providing educational training presentations on fair housing and lending law, as well as mortgage fraud awareness issues
- Composing narratives, compiling and analyzing data, for government grant reports and applications
- Assisting the Executive Director with community engagement and advocacy for fair housing policy changes with local, state, and federal authorities

Preferred Qualifications

- JD and member in good standing of the Illinois and Federal Northern District of Illinois bars
- Three years of civil rights litigation, housing or employment discrimination investigation and enforcement, or other housing policy or comparable investigation and enforcement experience
- Working knowledge of federal, state, and local fair housing laws, as well as lending, consumer protection, state eviction, and foreclosure laws
- Excellent written and verbal communications skills; proficient with standard computer software word processing and data collection programs (Microsoft Office), internet research and e-mail proficiency, and familiarity with online databases and social media platforms
- Self-directed and well-organized with the ability to work quickly and efficiently
- Ability to maintain consistent professional composure and exercise good interpersonal skills; ability to work with people of diverse backgrounds; and a demonstrated commitment to fair housing, civil rights, and racial equity issues
